You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following order:

No. XX-019931-D

In the matter of an Office of Lawyer Regulation Investigation
Concerning Anne Kathleen Reilly, Attorney at Law.
Office of Lawyer Regulation v. Anne Kathleen Reilly

On July 19, 2004, this court, pursuant to SCR 22.03(4), ordered Attorney Anne Kathleen Reilly to show cause why the Office of Lawyer Regulation's (OLR) motion that her license to practice law be temporarily suspended for her failure to respond or cooperate in an OLR grievance investigation should not be granted. Attorney Reilly subsequently filed a response on August 12, 2004 which does not reflect cooperation with the OLR in its investigation but which does raise a question of Attorney Reilly's possible medical incapacity.

Accordingly, because it appears that Attorney Reilly's continued practice of law poses a threat to the interest of the public and the administration of justice, this court, on its own motion, pursuant to SCR 22.21(1), temporarily suspends Attorney Reilly's license to practice law in this state. The Office of Lawyer Regulation and its director, pursuant to SCR 22.34(2), shall investigate Attorney Reilly's possible medical incapacity and thereafter, if appropriate, take further action pursuant to the procedures in SCR 22.34. The OLR shall report back to this court within 60 days of the date of this order detailing the status of its investigation; this court will then determine whether the temporary suspension of Ms. Reilly's license to practice law in this state shall continue.
